

What is Good Writing Outline

Introduction –

Tell the reader that there are many views on what good writing is. Explain what you are going to talk about through out the paper. Introduce that you have interview three different groups of people to see what good writing is to them.

Body Paragraphs –

2ND paragraph talk about the high school students' answers.

3RD paragraph talk about the college students' answers.

4TH paragraph talk about the people that were interview that were outside out school and in the work field about what they answered.

5TH paragraph talk about mine own experience and what I think good writing is.

Conclusion –

Combine all the findings with every people that you interviewed. Were the answers the same or did they differ between age groups.